SOME NEW FRUITS AND NEW HAY IN MARKET

INHUMAN HUSBAND BURNS WIFE ALIVE

Neighbors and Mother-in-law Swear That He Set Her on Fire.

Santa Ana, Cal., May 12.—Following the testimony of his mother-in-law and several neighbors a coroner's inquiry Frank Skelly, a contractor and lumberman, was arrested pending an investigation of the allegations that he murdered his wife, who was supposed to have died of burns received in the explosion of a gas stove.

According to the testimony of the mother-in-law, Mrs. T. J. Lewis, there was no stove explosion, but Skelly threw a quart of gasoline over his wife and then applied a match. Mrs. Lewis swore that her testimony was based on a statement her daughter had made as she was dying last Sunday in a hospital here.

She said her daughter begged her to keep it a secret for the sake of the children.

Neighbors who testified asserted they saw Mrs. Skelly rush out into the yard of her home with her clothing ablaze and crying, "Why did you do it, Frank? You have murdered me. Why didn't you use a pistol instead of gasoline?"

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jones and daughter have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Andreas during the bankers' week. Mr. Jones is vice president of the First National bank of Kansas City and was here to attend the convention.
